Discussion Questions:

- Would you ride naked? For love? For money? For true love? What 'cause' do you feel strongly enough about to ride naked?
- History has been hard on Lord Leofric. In most Godiva stories he is definitely the villain of the piece. Discuss the ways in which Leofric acted like a hero - were any of his actions less than heroic?
- What do you think Godiva's mother Morwen's life was like when she first married?
- How do you think today's social media would respond to the news of a naked ride through Coventry? Design a Facebook status or Tweet you would write as a villager that day.
- Aine is often portrayed making herbal remedies of sorts. In what ways do you use herbs to change your mood in your life?
- Discuss what you think village life was like after the famous ride? How would the different townsfolk tell the story?
- Godiva learned warfare skills from her father. Where do you think she learned her acrobatic horsemanship?

- Godiva was totally devoted to the people of Coventry. In which modern social structures do we find such devoted caretakers?
- Was Edmund a villain, or simply a maladjusted young man due to his childhood experiences?
- Discuss the relationship between Aine and Godiva. Does it remind you of any relationships in your life?
- Saxon noblewomen were peace weavers or in old Anglo-Saxon fripwebba. These women were known to marry a man from an opposing tribe to establish peace or end war. What is your view? Would you be a peace weaver?
- How is the term "double edged sword" relevant today?
- Discuss the crafts and craftsmanship you catch glimpses of throughout Naked. How are these practised today?
- Godiva picks up her mother's tapestry to complete it. What family heirlooms do you have that you treasure? Which ancestors do they bring to mind?
- Make daisy chains from "day's eyes" at your meeting.
- Which smells and sounds would help orientate you if you were walking blindfolded through the local mall?
- What symbology do the horses provide in Naked?
- What character traits do you think Godiva and Leofric will want for their child?
- What music would you suggest for a modern soundtrack for the battle scene?
- How do you think the Danes would tell the tale of Godiva and Leofric?
- Explore Beowulf during your book club meeting - discuss.
- Godiva grew up knowing legends of other great peace warriors - what stories do we tell today which would be the equivalent? What legends or tales do you tell your children - what messages do you think they receive?
- Talk about a time you were betrayed by a friend. How is that relationship today? Do you think Godiva will find it in herself to forgive those who betrayed her?

Serving Suggestions

Here are some delicacies of the day that you might like to serve up at your book club meeting.

Honey Cakes

At weddings in Godiva's time it was the custom for guests to bake flat honey cakes and pile them one on top of the other. From this comes the tradition of a tiered wedding cake. Try this delicious honey cake recipe or ask guests to bring their own version of a flat, round honey cake and pile them on top of each other. Sandwich together with honey frosting if desired.

- 250g clear honey, plus about 2 tbsp extra to glaze
- 225g unsalted butter
- 100g brown sugar
- 3 large eggs, beaten
- 300g all purpose/self-raising flour

Heat the oven to fan 140C/ conventional 160C/gas 3. Grease and line two 20cm round cake tins. Cut the butter into pieces and drop into a medium pan with the honey and sugar. Melt slowly over a low heat. When the mixture looks quite liquid, increase the heat under the pan and boil for about one minute. Leave to cool for 15-20 minutes, to prevent the eggs cooking when they are mixed. Beat the eggs into the melted honey mixture using a wooden spoon. Sift the flour into a large bowl and pour in the egg and honey mixture, beating until you have a smooth, quite runny batter. Pour the mixture into two flat, round tins and bake for 40-50 minutes until the cake is well-risen, golden brown and springs back when pressed. Turn the cake out on a wire rack. Warm 2 tbsp honey in a small pan and brush over the top of the cake to give a sticky glaze, then leave to cool. Keeps for 4-5 days wrapped, in an airtight tin.

Mead or Honey Wine

Mead is an old alcoholic beverage made of fermented honey and water. Spices, fruits and grains are added. A version of mead drunk by Godiva is oxymel. This health cup included 'mother' apple cider vinegar with honey mead. Versions of this health drink, both alcoholic and non-alcoholic are still to be found today.

Herbal Tisane

Aine made Godiva many cups of herbal tisanes in Naked. Serve a tisane of herb tea. To prepare a tisane, use 1-2 cups of herbs of your choice (fresh or dry) with 3-6 cups of water. Boil over stove for 10 minutes and strain. Add lemon juice if desired or add honey to sweeten.
